Confetti falls on the national champion Gators during the 2013 NCAA Championships' Super Six award ceremony.

MEDIA COVERAGE

From the tip of the Panhandle and down through Miami, the University of Florida athletic program attracts statewide interest from newspapers, magazines, television, websites and radio stations. UF holds its fair share of the national spotlight too, as media outlets such as ESPN, USA Today and Sports Illustrated track the progress of not only the nationally ranked football team, but also the careers of the many Gator world-class athletes. Locally, more than dozen media outlets regularly cover the Gators. In addition to daily coverage from the local media, many of the state's larger papers such as the Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post and the St. Petersburg Times employ beat writers who live in Gainesville year-round for the sole purpose of covering Gator teams. The UF Communications Department also helps student-athletes' hometown media follow the careers of Gators from their area.

ESPN AND THE SEC: BRING CONFERENCE ACTION TO THE NATION

In 2013, ESPN and the SEC announced the launch of the SEC Network, which will provide 24/7 programming dedicated to all things SEC. More than 1,000 live events will be available in the first full year across the television Network and its digital extensions. At least 450 events will be televised on the Network each year. Of the 450 events, there will be more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games and 250 Olympic sports on the Network. More than 550 additional sporting events will be available on ESPN digital platforms. The digital platform will include an outlet, similar to ESPN3, for the other 550 events and a live linear stream of the television network. This content will be available to Network subscribers across a range of devices.

Until the launch of the SEC Network in August of 2014, league teams will continue to appear on ESPN for many athletic events, including the March 22 SEC Gymnastics Championships. The Gators make three regular-season appearances on ESPN outlets. Florida's Jan. 17 meet at Auburn and home dual versus LSU on Feb. 21 will each air tape-delayed on ESPNU and ESPN2. The dual between the league's top two teams from the last four SEC Championship meets – Florida at Alabama on Feb. 28 – will air tape-delayed on ESPNU.

The league's regional television package will air four additional dual meets featuring the Gators – Feb. 7 at Kentucky and Feb. 14 versus Arkansas (both on Fox Sports Net) and Jan. 24 versus Georgia and March 14 at Missouri (both on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast).

Florida makes its second appearance on the Pac 12 Network when it opens the 2014 season at UCLA on Jan. 11. The meet airs live at 10 p.m. ET.

Sun Sports Network, which reached 99 percent of Florida's cable homes, will air more than 100 UF events during the 2013-14 academic year. Included are two Gator meets – the Jan. 31 dual versus NCAA runner-up Oklahoma and the regular-season home finale versus West Virginia on March 7. Every meet of the Gators' regular season will be broadcast in 2014.

In December of 2011, ESPN and NCAA announced an agreement to extend rights through the 2023-24 season. In this agreement, additional NCAA Championship events were added to the ESPN networks, including NCAA Gymnastics. ESPNU will cover the 2014 NCAA Championships, set for April 18-20 in BJCC Arena in Birmingham, Ala., on a tape-delayed basis. Both the NCAA Super Six team final and the individual event finals will stream live on ESPN3.

The impact Rhonda Faehn's made on the University of Florida gymnastics program is undeniable. Now entering her 12th season as the Gators' head coach, the program has:

- Claimed team's first NCAA Championships (2013)
- Eight top-five NCAA Championship finishes
- Won four (2007, 2010, 2012 and 2013) Southeastern Conference team titles
- Registered eight NCAA Region team titles
- Established the top-10 team scores in school history and each team event record

When she accepted the Florida head coaching position in the late spring of 2002, Faehn (pronounced FAIN) saw a program with the potential to firmly establish itself among the nation's elite. She's made that vision a reality, as the Gators perform an exciting and high-level of gymnastics that consistently competes with the nation's best and brings new fans to the O'Connell Center.

Florida's 2013 NCAA title is among the eight top-five NCAA finishes earned by Faehn-led Gator teams. The NCAA title is the first for the Gators and Florida became just the fifth team in the 32-year history of event to win the team crown. Florida has advanced to the NCAA Super Six eight times under Faehn (2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012 and 2013).

The Gators claimed eight of their last nine NCAA Region team titles, with their 2005 NCAA Southeast Region title being UF's first since 1997.

Florida has returned to success in the SEC Championships under Faehn. In 2007, Florida won the SEC team title - the sixth in the program's history, but its first since 1989. The Gators repeated as SEC champions again in 2010, 2012 and 2013. Gator athletes have earned All-SEC accolades 34 times and 13 league individual titles went to Florida since 2007.

Under Faehn, 30 UF gymnasts have claimed a total of 116 All-America honors in NCAA competition. In the last three seasons, Gators have come away with six NCAA individual titles. In 2013, freshman Bridget Sloan won both the all-around and balance beam titles. Her all-around win was the second consecutive for the Gators as Kytra Hunter became the first Gator to win the NCAA all-around title in 2012. Gators took the vault titles in back-to-back seasons – Hunter (2012) and Marissa King (2011). Alaina Johnson won the Gators' first NCAA uneven bars crown in 2013 as Florida's three individual event titles in 2013 was a single season program high.

In the competitive arena, the Gators registered wins over some of the nation's top teams during the last 11 years, including victories over Alabama, Georgia, UCLA and Utah. Faehn also found success on the recruiting trail, as her classes are regarded among the nation's best, including the 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes that drew the No. 1 ranking.

After leading the 2007 Gator team to the No. 1 position in 11 of the 12 regular-season ranking periods, Faehn was named the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) Coach of the Year. She is a six-time recipient of the NACGC Southeast Region Gymnastics Coach of the Year. She shared the 2003 honor and was again named the winner in 2005, 2007, 2010, 2011 and 2013. Faehn picked up the SEC Coach of the Year honor six of her 11 seasons (2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013).

Faehn took over in May of 2002 as the sixth head coach for the Gator program. She brought experience at the sports' highest level to the Florida program. A member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic Team and an All-American while at UCLA, Faehn coached among the club and collegiate levels for nine years prior to joining UF.

Faehn joined the Florida program after spending four seasons (1999-02) at the University of Nebraska. She served as an assistant coach for the Huskers for three seasons before being elevated to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2001. Four of the Huskers' five NCAA Super Six appearances were achieved with Faehn on the NU staff and during that time, the team twice posted Super Six finishes of fifth (2001 and '02) and took fourth at the 2000 event. The Cornhuskers also produced two-time NCAA champion Heather Brink during this period, when Brink claimed the NCAA all-around and vault crowns in 2000. Faehn was named the NACGC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2001. She also collected the South Central Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2002 and shared the 2000 Region 3 Assistant Coach of the Year award. During her stay at NU, 11 athletes earned a total of 21 All-America awards.

She also was an assistant coach at the University of Maryland for the 1997 and '98 seasons. She was named the Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 1998 after playing a crucial role in the Terps qualifying for their first Southeast Regional meet in seven seasons. Maryland improved from 11-18 in her first season to 22-18 and a seventh-place Southeast Regional finish in 1998.

Prior to joining Maryland, Faehn was head coach at the Lanco Gymnastics Training Center in Lancaster, Pa., from 1994-96. At Lanco Gymnastics Training Center, Faehn organized a team program for levels four through 10. She was in charge of choreography for the beam and floor exercise and coached the level nine team to a state championship. Faehn has also served as a master staff member and clinician at the Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa.

During her collegiate career at UCLA (1990-92), Faehn earned All-America second-team honors in both the all-around and balance beam at the 1992 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the 1992 All-Pacific-10 team and shared that season's conference uneven bars title. Faehn began her coaching career as a Bruins' student assistant from 1992-94. She graduated from UCLA in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Faehn's club gymnastics resume includes competitions at the sport's highest level. Faehn, the first alternate to the 1988 U.S. Olympic team, was a four-year member of the U.S. National Team (1985-88). She is the 1987 and '88 U.S. vault champion, scoring a perfect 10.0 at both the 1988 U.S. Olympic Trials and the 1988 U.S. National Championships. In 1987, she was the highest U.S. finisher at the World Championships, placing 19th in the all-around. Faehn, who trained under world-famous coach Bela Karolyi, was a member of the U.S.'s gold-medal team at the 1987 Pan American Games, where she took eighth in the all-around and fourth in the vault.

In the summer of 2006, Faehn and Jeremy Bayon were married. They have two sons. Noah Émile Bayon was born in January of 2008 and Isaiah Freedom Bayon arrived in November of 2010. The family resides in Gainesville.

"Rhonda was one of my most dedicated and disciplined gymnasts. I enjoyed coaching her as she developed into a world-class gymnast. She has been the national champion on the vault and a member of the U.S. National Team. Rhonda has a high moral standard and is driven by her goals. Those traits she showed as a gymnast are still present today. Rhonda has already proven her expertise and high technical coaching level in her previous positions. I have absolutely no doubt that she will be one of the sport's most successful coaches. She continues to be one of my favorites - I wish her the best of luck."

ASSISTANT COACHES

ADRIAN BURDE
ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Burde (pronounced bur-DAY) enters his eighth season with the Florida gymnastics program in the fall of 2013. He coaches vault and tumbling, as well as aids in recruiting and team conditioning.

Burde has coached vault and tumbling for the Gators since 2011. A Gator has claimed the two of the last three NCAA vault titles (Marissa King/2011 and Kytra Hunter/2012). Florida has also taken Southeastern Conference event titles each of the last three seasons (Ashanée Dickerson, 2011 floor exercise; Hunter, 2012 vault, 2013 floor; Bridget Sloan, 2013 floor).

Florida led all teams in the last three seasons with seven advancing to the NCAA floor exercise final and UF's total of seven in NCAA vault finals is the second-highest during that span. The Gators' floor total of 49.725 in 2013 Super Six action set the NCAA Championships' event record. Florida has ranked as the nation's No. 1 vault team for 25 of the last 34 ranking periods (spanning to 2011 season) and was the top-ranked floor team for the entire 2011 season.

Burde coached the Gator uneven bar performers when he joined the program and his impact was evident early. The 2007 Gators opened the season with the team's then third-highest uneven bars team total ever of 49.575 at the Super Six Challenge. The UF bar record was reset to 49.70 versus Kentucky on Feb. 16. The Gators held the No. 1 position in the national bar rankings for the final nine weeks of the regular season. Florida was again among the national uneven bars leaders in Burde's second season. Florida's total of 49.625 set in the Gators' Link to Pink meet was the nation's highest uneven bars total of the 2008 season and ranks third all-time for the Gators. Two Gators advanced to the 2009 NCAA bar final, with then sophomore Alicia Goodwin sharing third overall – matching the then second-highest UF bar finish in the program's history. All-America honors were earned by three Gator bar performers in 2010, with two advancing to the event final.

His peers recognized Burde as the 2007 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year. In 2011 and again in 2013, he shared the NACGC Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year honor with fellow Gator assistant Robert Ladanyi.

Burde joined UF in June of 2006 after working as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska since 2001. At Nebraska, he served as the vault and floor coach and conditioning coordinator. While there, he was named the 2003 National Assistant Coach of the Year by the NACGC and the 2003 South Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

At Nebraska, Burde helped lead the Cornhuskers to four NCAA Super Six team finals (2002, '03, '05, '06). He saw NU athletes earn 19 All-America honors in the floor and vault events. It was at Nebraska that Burde coached Canadian Richelle Simpson, the 2003 NCAA all-around and floor exercise champion. He served as her coach at the 2003 World Championships in Anaheim, Calif., and the 2003 Pan American Games. Burde and UF Head Coach Rhonda Faehn both were members of the Nebraska coaching staff for the 2002 season.

Prior to working at Nebraska, Burde coached the girl's Level 10 and International Elite programs for the Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Okla. There, he coached U.S. National Team members Larissa Stewart and Lori Wynn.

Burde began his coaching career in his native Romania in 1994, where he was a Junior National team coach until 1999. He coached the Romanian Junior National Team with current UF Assistant Coach Robert Ladanyi. The two have known each other since their competitive gymnastic days.

Burde's international coaching experience is a great benefit to the Gators. He coached Romanian Alexandra Eremia from 1997-99, who later was a member of the 2004 Olympic gold medal team and was awarded the bronze medal on the balance beam. Burde also coached Florica Leonida during the same time, who along with Eremia, earned a team silver medal at the 2003 World Championships.

Burde was a member of the Romanian Junior National Team from 1988 to 1992. He joined the French club team Aix les Bains in 1992 and captured the all-around title at the 1994 French national meet. While competing, Burde also helped coach younger gymnasts at the club.

Burde is a 1996 graduate of the Romanian National School of Coaching, where he received a degree in International High Level Gymnastics.

He married the former Darcie Lee in the summer of 2007. They welcomed Isabella to their family in August of 2012.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROBERT LADANYI
ASSISTANT COACH

Robert Ladanyi (pronounced La-DA-knee) is in his ninth season as an assistant coach at Florida. He coaches the Gator uneven bar performers and also shares the team's conditioning coach duties.

Two milestone events in Gator gymnastics uneven bars history happened in 2013. Mackenzie Caquatto became the fifth Gator to earn a perfect 10.0 on bars with her mark versus Missouri. On the final day of the 2013 season, Alaina Johnson claimed the NCAA uneven bars title – a first for the Gator program. Half of the Gators' bars lineup advanced to the NCAA Individual Event finals in 2013, with all finishing among the final four. Freshman Bridget Sloan also kept the Southeastern Conference title with the Gators in 2013, as Johnson was the 2012 league winner on the event,

Under Ladanyi, the Gators have held the No. 1 spot in 24 of the last 29 national uneven bars rankings (spanning to 2011 season), turned in 25 individual bar marks of 9.95 or better and seen the Gators claim a total of seven All-America honors on the bars. Florida's six appearances in the last three NCAA Individual bar finals leads the nation. Five of the Gators' all-time top 10 bar totals have come in the last two seasons, including the 2013 high of 49.675, which stands second all-time for the program.

Ladanyi coached vault and the team on their tumbling skills when he first joined the Gator coaching staff. The upgrade was immediately seen in his first season in 2006 as the Gators gained a reputation among the nation's collegiate programs for their difficulty throughout the floor lineup. Florida's 12 representatives from 2006-10 in NCAA floor exercise final competition was tops among the nation's gymnastics programs.

In 2008, Florida sent four to the NCAA floor final (Amanda Castillo, Corey Hartung, Ashley Reed and Nicola Willis) with Willis leading the Gators by cumulating her UF career with a third-place finish. Half of Florida's floor lineup earned All-America honors in 2006 and 2007, with Savannah Evans (2006 and 2007), Hartung (2006 and 2007) and Reed (2007) advancing to the NCAA Event Final. Hartung finished her UF career in 2009 by taking third in the NCAA floor final. A pair of Gator freshmen – Marissa King and Ashanée Dickerson advanced to the 2010 NCAA floor final.

The Gators also were successful in vault under Ladanyi's supervision. He saw seven additions to the program's all-time top-10 vault team totals list from 2007 to 2010. A Gator took at least a share of nine vault event titles during the course of the 2006 campaign. Two Gators advanced to the 2007 NCAA vault event final - Castillo and Evans. A Gator claimed at least a share of all but two 2008 regular-season vault titles and Reed won the SEC and NCAA Southeast Region vault titles. In 2009, Florida gymnasts claimed five regular-season vault titles and Maranda Smith advanced to the NCAA vault final. King and Dickerson also represented UF in the 2010 NCAA vault final.

His peers recognized Ladanyi and fellow Gator assistant Adrian Burde as the 2011 and again in 2013 as the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coaches of the Year.

Ladanyi came to UF from the Mihaiuc Gymnastics Academy (MGA) in Webster, Texas, where he had coached since 2002. Three gymnasts advanced to the National Junior Olympic Championships during his time at MGA. He also was an assistant coach at the Academy of Gymnastics and Dance in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2001-02.

Before coaching in the United States, Ladanyi was head coach of CSM in Baia Mare, Romania (1992-97). Part of his responsibilities included coaching the Romania Junior National team from 1994-97. Three gymnasts he coached were selected for the 1999 Romanian Senior National team, while Monica Sabou was the alternate for the 2001 Romanian World Team. Ladanyi then left his native Romania to become the head coach at S.G. Amsicora in Cagliari, Italy from 1997-01.

Ladanyi graduated from the Romanian National School of Coaching in 1994 with a degree in International High Level Gymnastics. He trained with the Romanian National Team where he was an all-around competitor who excelled in parallel bars and rings before an injury forced him to retire from competition at age 19.

Ladanyi has two daughters, Gabriella, who was born in December of 2004 and Laila, who arrived in May of 2009. Gabby is an aspiring gymnast herself, taking the 2012 Texas Level 6 Junior A1 state uneven bars title and was runner-up in 2013 Texas Level 7 Junior A1 bars competition. She qualified for TOPS (Talent Opportunity Program) national testing in 2013 and was identified among the nation's top 120 gymnasts. As one of the program's top gymnasts, Gabby will attend USA Gymnastics camp.

In addition, Miranda also served as club coach for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics from 2005-07, coaching classes ranging from preschool to elite.

Miranda also spent several summers as master staff instructor at the world-renowned Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. Additionally, Miranda has served on the coaching staff at multiple summer camps and clinics across the country.

Claire has been in the gym since she was 3 years old. This Missouri-born, Texas resident loves barbeque and sour gummy candy. She hopes to one day travel all over the world, specifically Australia. When she's not walking the beam or soaring through the air on the uneven bars, she enjoys fishing and hopes to one day go hunting. Claire has older and younger brothers. She can play the piano, but marvels at her older sibling's ability to play the instrument by ear. Though she hasn't lived in the Longhorn State her entire life, she does enjoy two-stepping, walking to the beat in her cowboy boots.

Caquatto, or "Macko," started gymnastics when she was 2. But she really fell in love with gymnastics during the 1996 Olympics — when it went from a pastime to a goal-setting drive. Her proudest moment so far is going to the 2010 World Championships in the Netherlands. Her younger sister, Bridgette is also on the team. Mackenzie says Bridgey keeps her motivated and grounded. She loves her mom's spaghetti, as part of her father's 100-percent Sicilian heritage. One of her competitions took her to Venice, which she loved. Her competitions have taken her all over the world, but she longs to visit Australia.

A life-long resident of the Sunshine State, Morgan is quite familiar with the Orlando-area theme parks. She could play tour guide for any out-of-town visitors. Partial to parks with a roller coaster. Favorite part is the upward climb when there is that slight moment of doubt that perhaps this wasn't a good idea just before hitting the crest. That thought is quickly dismissed with the rush and thrill of the roller coaster's drop. Mom makes many great dishes, but Morgan's favorite is her chicken pot pie. Also fan of dad's maple-glazed salmon grilled on cedar planks. Mom was a gymnast when she was younger and thought it would be a good outlet for the very active three-year old Morgan. Enjoys a good debate – not afraid to get her point made.

"You better bring her back." Those were the words that a gym club owner told Kytra's parents after her first day in the gym. Now that gymnast's talent which was so evident after just one session is the Gators' first to win the NCAA all-around title in 2012. Kytra was ready to commit to the Gators when the plane touched down in Florida and she saw palm trees. An added bonus? All the orange she could wear – her favorite color.. You can't miss Kytra when she rides her black scooter, which she personally designed with bright pink flames and skulls. Hooked on seafood and sushi, but don't even think about giving her Brussels sprouts.

The parents of the 2013 NCAA uneven bars champion started her on gymnastics as a change of pace from her older siblings, all soccer players. It was love at first tumbling pass. Johnson took a break from the mat and uneven bars to swim, but ultimately gymnastics won out. Johnson was home-schooled from fourth through eighth grade and said it was nice being on her own schedule. What happened on June 13, 2008? Well, in Tyler, Texas, the mayor declared that date "Alaina Johnson Day" after she earned a spot in the U.S. Olympic Trials. Loves going to Lake Tyler with her friends where they tube, knee board and, of course, tan.

Jamie Shisler once went on a 10-day backpacking spree through Costa Rican rainforests, and her love of travel has inspired her to someday work for the International Olympic Committee in Switzerland. If that doesn't work out, the aspiring entrepreneur, who was her neighborhood's go-to person for dog sitting & house watching, plans to be trilingual and work for a multinational corporation in South America. Summer of 2012 found Jamie in Brussels, Belgium, as part of UF's Study Abroad program. Class schedule allowed her to take train to London to visit teammate Marissa King in London for a weekend. Her ability to sit and watch professional cycling for hours at a time takes the same concentration she shows to create pottery from clay and wood. Bridget Sloan is from a large family of Irish decent. Family reunions, or "FFF" (Forced Family Fun as the cousins refer to the events) are loud, filled with food and in fact, fun. When she is home, the 2013 NCAA all-around champ rarely wants to eat out because Bridget has declared her mother "Best Chef in The World." She would love to live in Europe someday, as long as it's somewhere that's first language is English. Has choreographed floor routines for some of the younger gymnasts in her club. Credits her dad with her dancing ability as the pair would twirl around the living room when she was young. In high school, Bridget would sometimes take advantage of an empty hallway to turn some cartwheels. Hasn't done any cartwheels on UF's Plaza of Americas – yet.

Nicknamed Spice for virtually forever, this Texan owns a wardrobe staple for those of the Lone Star State – a pair of cowboy boots. Though the Texas native loves her barbecue (especially when prepared by her Dad), Spicer's Gator teammates wasted no time introducing her to frozen yogurt. Her favorite earrings are worn for every competition. Whenever she's in need of a good laugh, Spice turns on the movie "RV," which reminds her of her own family's misadventures in their motor home that broke down on every trip. Kiersten's middle name is Kumi, which comes from her Japanese heritage and means "forever beautiful." Born in Panama, but she's a true citizen of Colorado. At home you'd probably find her cruising around on an ATV or fishing in a mountain spring. This gymnast did some serious damage with the catapult she built in her high school engineering class, shooting it more than 90 feet perfectly. In the summer of 2011, she joined her brother and father on an Engineers Without Borders trip to Nicaragua where they helped plan a bridge to be built. This past summer, Kiersten served an internship with the same organization. Has a self-proclaimed obsession with ghosts but has never had her own supernatural encounter.

GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

GENERAL DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor	0.5
Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)	0.1
Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor	0.3
Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise)	0.1
Intermediate swing (bars)	0.3
Concentration pauses longer than two seconds	0.1
Coach blocking judges' view	0.2
Competing out of order (taken from the team score)	0.1
"Up to the competition level" deduction	0.1

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

2014 Gator Vaults

Vault/Gymnasts	Value

UNEVEN BARS

At least two elements must be on the low bar. Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, several bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration, intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds.

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, strength elements such as turns, leaps, body waves and running steps. Special requirements of this event are an acrobatic series, a gymnastics series, a full turn and a leap.

The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no undertime deduction. Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).
2) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements, one element C or higher.
3) A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the dance series).
4) Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.
5) Minimum of C dismount or B dismount proceeded by and directly connected to any C element (acro or dance).

FLOOR EXERCISE

The composition of the exercise must show harmony between gymnastics and acrobatic elements, create dynamic changes in rhythm and levels and show versatile use of the entire floor area. The exercise must contain two different acrobatic series and one series must contain at least two saltos. The musical accompaniment is to be instrumental only. The exercise must last between 1:10 and 1:30 minutes. The "competition level" for floor exercise are defined by the basic standards (failure to meet competition level is a .10 deduction):

1) One acro series with two (2) saltos (same or different).
2) Three different saltos within the exercise.
3) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements (leaps - one must be off of one foot that includes a 180 degree split; jumps)
4) One tumbling pass with a D salto or higher
5) An acro dismount with a C in bonus combination OR a minimum of a D skill

2013 SEASON RECAP

The Gators celebrate their first NCAA Championship. It was the 30th national title for the Florida athletics program.

Jan. 4 versus Ball State

The pre-season ranked No. 3 Gators opened home action with a 196.575-190.55 win over Ball State in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center in front of a crowd of 3,768. The Gators swept the evening's event titles, with senior Ashanée Dickerson taking the all-around (38.90) and sharing the vault title (9.925) with freshman Bridget Sloan. With her performance in the season opener, Sloan became the first World All-Around champion (2009) to compete as a collegiate. The two wins by Dickerson raised her collegiate event titles to 60 – fifth all-time for the Gators. Sophomore Kytra Hunter equaled her collegiate-best of 9.90 on uneven bars and also won the floor exercise with the same mark. Junior Mackenzie Caquatto completed the sweep by taking the balance beam win at 9.875.

Jan. 11 at LSU

Edged by No. 8 Louisiana State University, 196.875-196.575 in front of 4,074 at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, the No. 3 Gators gained a valuable experience they would point to as the 2013 season progressed. The Gators were forced to count a fall toward its balance beam team total on the final rotation, which gave the Tigers the win. It was the first miss counted toward the Gators' beam total since the 2011 NCAA Championships. Florida's Mackenzie Caquatto turned in a nearly flawless beam set to win her second consecutive event title with a season-best 9.95. Kytra Hunter, making her first all-around appearance of the season, won the title at 39.675 – just off her collegiate-best of 39.725 set when she claimed the 2012 NCAA all-around crown. For the evening, Hunter collected two other event titles. In her first performance on the event of the season, the defending NCAA vault champion used a team season-high 9.95 for the win. She also matched her collegiate-best on the uneven bars at 9.90 for the second consecutive week to share that event crown with LSU's Sarie Morrison.

Jan. 18 versus Missouri

The No. T-3 Gators upped their season-best to 197.30 to open home Southeastern Conference action with a win versus Missouri (194.625) in front of a Stephen C. O'Connell Center crowd of 5,753. Mackenzie Caquatto's 10.0 on the uneven bars highlighted the Gators' sweep of the event titles. Caquatto's perfect mark was the nation's first of the season and she became the fifth Gator to share the school's event record. Ashanée Dickerson's then-season-best total of 39.575 gave her the 15th all-around win of her career. She also used a collegiate-best 9.975 to win the vault title and used a 9.90 to win her first floor title of the season. Bridget Sloan collected her first collegiate balance beam title with her mark of 9.90.

Jan. 25 versus Auburn for Gators Link to Pink

In front of a pink-clad Stephen C. O'Connell Center crowd of 8,159 – the sixth-largest in school history – the Gators used the nation's then leading total of 197.65 to win the Gators Link to Pink meet versus No. 18 Auburn (196.025). It was the seventh annual Gators Link to Pink meet, an event part of a Southeastern Conference initiative to raise awareness about the fight against breast cancer. Kytra Hunter upped her own national-high all-around total to 39.70 to take the win. She also added three event wins, matching her collegiate-best of 9.975 for the vault title and taking balance beam (9.90) and floor exercise (9.925). Bianca Dancose-Giambattisto made her competitive debut on bars and shared the evening's title with fellow freshman Bridget Sloan at 9.925. Her mark equaled the school record for the highest score posted in a first competitive appearance on bars.

the O'Connell Center crowd of 8,074 to its feet with her collegiate-best 9.975 floor performance. That mark helped the Gators equal their then school floor exercise record of 49.65.

Feb. 16 at Georgia

No. 1 Florida finished 2013 SEC road action with a 197.30-196.175 win over No. 9 Georgia in front of a Stegeman Coliseum crowd of 9,971. The Gators trailed the GymDogs mid-meet, but moved ahead in the third rotation. The Gators swept the top three all-around spots, with Bridget Sloan claiming her third consecutive win (39.60). She also shared the bars with at 9.95 with UGA's Chelsea Davis. Kytra Hunter (39.45) and Ashanée Dickerson (39.40) took second and third in the all-around.

Feb. 22 versus Kentucky

No. 1 Florida completed its 2013 SEC regular-season schedule with a 196.975-196.075 home win versus No. 23 Kentucky. The Gators won each apparatus title but had no one entered in the all-around. Kytra Hunter equaled her collegiate-best of 9.975 for the second time in 2013 to take her third vault win of the season. Bridget Sloan set her collegiate bars best of 9.975 to pick up her fourth win on the event. On beam, Randy Stageberg and Ashanée Dickerson shared the win (9.875). Marissa King claimed her first floor exercise win of the season at 9.95.

March 1 versus Minnesota

No. 2 Florida closed regular-season home action with a 198.425-197.175 win versus No. 14 Minnesota. That total set the Gators' all-time high and ranks as the nation's highest total since the 2004 season. Florida swept the individual event titles as a Gator earned the nearly-perfect mark of 9.975 on each of the four events. Kytra Hunter and Bridget Sloan went one-two in the all-around and their totals moved to the top of the nation's all-around marks for the season. Hunter equaled the school all-around record of 39.80 set by 11-time All-American Kristen Guise in 1996. Sloan turned in a 39.75 to take second. Hunter used her fifth vault mark of 9.975 of the last 11 team competitions to claim the event title. Mackenzie Caquatto was just off her school-record with her winning uneven bars mark of 9.975. Sloan posted her collegiate-best of 9.975 for her third beam win as a Gator. Marissa King upped her season-best to a collegiate-best 9.975 to take her second consecutive floor win. The totals of 49.60 (beam) and 49.70 (floor) set Florida's event records.

March 16 at Utah

The nation's high road score of the season wasn't enough as No. 1 Gators ended 2013 regular-season action with a 198.125-197.875 loss at No. 8 Utah in front of a Jon M. Huntsman Center crowd of 14,903. Bridget Sloan took a share of the all-around win (39.70) as well sharing the bars win after receiving her second 9.975 on the event of the last three meets. Kytra Hunter took a share of the vault win with her third consecutive 9.975 and also was third in the all-around at 39.65. Ashanée Dickerson's season-best of 9.925 on balance beam shared second overall. Sloan and Hunter led the Gators on floor with marks of 9.90.

The No. 1 Gators used their highest score ever in SEC Championships competition – 198.00 - to take the program's ninth overall crown. Two-time defending NCAA champion Alabama was second (197.80), followed by Louisiana State University (197.70), Georgia (197.325), Auburn (196.55), Arkansas (196.40), Missouri (195.525), and Kentucky (194.60).

Florida became the first league team since Georgia (2004, 2005, 2006) to win the SEC title in consecutive years. As the meet's top-seeded team, Florida opened competition on vault. Usually a strong event, steps on landings dinged the Gators' event total and the team was fourth after the opening rotation. The team quickly shook off the minor problems of its opening event to post totals of 49.50 or better on each of the next three events. Florida's 49.50 on balance beam shared the meet high and UF's 49.625 on floor exercise led the competition.

The Gators also took a share of three of the four event wins. Bridget Sloan, the SEC Freshman of the Year, shared the all-around win (39.75), uneven bars (9.95) and also tied with teammate Kytra Hunter at 9.95 for the floor exercise win. Florida's Rhonda Faehn was named the SEC Coach of the Year – her fourth consecutive and sixth time overall in her 11 years with the Gators.

2013 GATOR GYMNASTICS SEASON REVIEW

April 6 - NCAA Regionals (Gainesville)

The nation's top total in NCAA Regional competition sent the Gators to their 31st NCAA Championships' appearance as the top seed. Florida's 198.40 in regional competition ranks as the second-highest in school history, just a tick behind the school-record of 198.425 set March 1. Minnesota earned the other NCAA Championships' berth with its runner-up total of 197.10.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center crowd of 7,137 saw the Gators take at least a share of every event title. Kytra Hunter won the all-around at 39.775 – just off her national-leading 39.80 set March 1. Bridget Sloan was second at 39.675 and Marissa King equaled her collegiate-best of 39.65 for third. Hunter shared the vault win at 9.95 with Ashanée Dickerson and also turned in the same mark to tie King for first on floor. Sloan won bars with her second 9.975 mark on the event of the season. King, who stepped into the Gators' balance beam lineup to replace Randy Stageberg who dislocated her shoulder after the SEC Championships, anchored the set with her winning mark of 9.95.

The meet marked the return of All-American Alaina Johnson, who was sidelined since Jan. 18 with a stress reaction and stress fracture of lower back. She turned in a 9.875 on bars and a 9.925 on vault. Junior Mackenzie Caquatto turned in a gutty performance as she underwent a root canal less than 24 hours prior to the meet. She hit each of her three events, posting a 9.925 on bars, 9.9 on beam and 9.875 on vault.

April 19 - NCAA Semifinal (Los Angeles, Calif.)

Florida led all teams in NCAA Semifinal competition with its total of 197.775 to advance to the program's 11th NCAA Super Six team final. The Gators opened the meet with a 49.325 on floor exercise – the only event it didn't lead the field through both semifinal competitions. The Gators then went on the post totals of 49.45 (vault), 49.525 (bars) and 49.475 (beam) to move to the team final.

Bridget Sloan became the second consecutive Gator freshman to win the NCAA all-around title. Sloan's 39.60 is the second-highest all-around total ever for the Gators in NCAA semifinal competition (behind Kytra Hunter's winning total of 39.725 in 2012). Mackenzie Caquatto's 9.95 led all in NCAA Semifinal I bars and beam competition. It stands as the highest beam mark ever by a Gator in NCAA competition and matched the highest UF bar mark in NCAA competition set by Alaina Johnson (2012 semi & Super Six) and Melanie Sinclair (2008 semi).

Six Gators picked up 16 All-America honors, equaling the school record of 16 honors set in 2012.

Florida claimed its first NCAA Championship with a stirring come-from-behind effort. The Gators were forced to count a miss on its opening event, balance beam, putting the team at the bottom of the field. After regrouping during a second rotation bye, Florida showed no signs of its previous troubles on its next event, the floor exercise, as the Gators put up an NCAA Super Six record floor total of 49.725. Three Gators turned in or equaled collegiate floor bests in the Super Six, as freshmen Bridgette Caquatto and Bridget Sloan each earned 9.95s and Kytra Hunter posted a 9.975.

That performance had Florida trailing defending NCAA champion Alabama by 0.15 at the midway point of the meet. Florida picked up some more ground on vault, as the Gators' 49.50 was the evening's high total for the event. Four Gators turned in marks of 9.9 or better, including Sloan equaling her collegiate vault best of 9.95. Alaina Johnson, Marissa King and Hunter also posted 9.9s.

After sitting out the fifth rotation on bye, Florida returned to the competition floor for its final event– uneven bars. The Gators trailed Alabama by 0.025 – the same margin that the Gators led the Tide heading into the final rotation of the 2012 Super Six final. But the 2013 meet had a different ending. Florida's 49.475 led all teams on Super Six bars competition. The lineup was punctuated by Johnson's season-best of 9.95. Sloan and Mackenzie Caquatto also earned 9.9s.

Florida took the title at 197.575. Oklahoma was second (197.375), followed by Alabama (197.35), UCLA (197.10), Louisiana State University (197.05) and Georgia (196.675).

April 21 - NCAA Championships Individual Event Finals (Los Angeles, Calif.)

Florida was represented in each of the four apparatus of the NCAA Championships Individual Events. Two Gators won event titles. Bridget Sloan added the balance beam title (9.90) to her NCAA all-around win claimed on the meet's opening day. Alaina Johnson led three Gators in the final four of the uneven bars standings to become Florida's first to win the event. Johnson turned in a 9.9125, followed by Sloan (9.90/T2nd) and Mackenzie Caquatto (9.8875/T4th). Mackenzie Caquatto also took fourth on beam (9.85). Sloan shared fourth in the floor final at 9.90. Senior Marissa King finished her career by taking sixth on floor (9.8875) and seventh on beam (9.7875). Three Gators competed in the vault final - Ashanée Dickerson (T5th/9.90), Hunter (16th/9.85) and Johnson (T17th/9.825).

Bridget Sloan is named the 2013 Honda Sports Award recipient for gymnastics, distinguishing her as the nation's top collegiate female athlete in the sport. The honor was based on the results of national balloting among all NCAA member schools as part of The Collegiate Women Sports Awards program, now in its 37th year.

Sloan is only the fourth freshman gymnast to collect the Honda Award and the second consecutive, as Florida's Kytra Hunter received the honor in 2012. Sloan is the third Gator gymnast to receive the honor, as Ann Woods received the 1982 award.

#Individual event scores determined by adding team and individual competition scores together

@ - 1993 marked the first year of a two-day format of team competition. The top six teams from the first day advance to the "Super Six" competition.
Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spots (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition earn All-America first-team honors; the next eight earn All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

* - denotes All-America second team; ^ - IG denotes International Gymnast

Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA's two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spot (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition (results from both sessions combined) earned All-America first-team honors; the next eight earned All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors. In 2013, the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) began awarding regular-season All-America honors based on final regular-season regional qualifying standings (top four and ties and No. 5-8 are second team).

GATORS LINK TO PINK

As part of a Southeastern Conference initiative, the Feb. 21 dual meet is the eighth annual Gators Link to Pink event, where all teams will wear pink leotards in support of the fight against breast cancer. Last year's event raised over $5,000 for the local American Cancer Society chapter in Gainesville.

GATOR GYMNASTICS FAN SUPPORT

Florida is nationally recognized as a hotbed of collegiate gymnastics. The crowds are getting bigger each year at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, with the Gators averaging more than 5,860 fans per meet in 2013 -- the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the fifth-highest season average in the program's history.

Seven of the program's top 10 crowds have come in the last six seasons. The 2008 regular-season dual meet featuring then No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Georgia drew a Gator gymnastics record crowd of 10,855. The 2010 Gators Link to Pink meet versus LSU drew the program's third-largest crowd of 9,198. The 2011 Gators Link to Pink meet drew the program's overall fifth-largest crowd (8,272). Florida's strong fan base played a big role in the Gators being awarded the 2010 NCAA Gymnastics Championships. The Gators will play host to NCAA action again in 2013 when the NCAA Southeast Region Championships are held in the O'Connell Center.

The size of O'Connell Center gymnastics crowds continue to swell since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season.

The Gators drew a program-record 10,855 fans for the 2008 dual meet featuring then-No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Georgia.

The Rumblin' Tumblin' Reptiles is the Gator gymnastics team's student-booster group.

Fan interest has been growing for Gator gymnastics since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season, with the team's average attendance growing tremendously during her tenure. Florida averaged more than 6,200 per meet in 2012, the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest average in the program's 40-year history.
